"Passion for perfection"
Founder Piotr Kler

Kler's furniture manufacture tradition dates back to 1973 when Piotr Kler started to make his first sofas in a small workshop. His drive for excellence is one of the core values behind the company we are today.

Our customers associate Kler's name with high quality of materials and craftsmanship. Elegance and timeless quality of our designs is ensured by cooperation with renowned designer studios from France and Italy.

We believe that with furniture our customers obtain a chance to express their individualism and create unique and prestigious interiors with a wide variety of color, fabric, finish and comfort options elements.

All markets are different and require tailor made solutions and approaches therefore our team is available to receive your feedback and assist you along the sales process.
